

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

'Hot to Cold'

An Odyssey of Architectural Adaptation

Friday, May 22 2015 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM

National Building Museum

Registration required; registrants pay the $7 fee to the coordinator at the meeting place.

A docent will guide us through the exhibit of 'Hot to Cold', and exhibit by BIG – Bjarke Ingels Group, showcasing how local culture and climate shapes the firm's design solutions. Featured projects will draw from the firm's extensive archive. You will see more than 60 three-dimensional models suspended from balconies of the Great Hall. After the tour linger longer and visit other exhibits in the museum and enjoy a lunch in the cafeteria.

The National Building Museum is located on 401F Street NW Washington, DC 20001. Accessibility entrance is located at G Street and 4th Street. The Red line Metro stop is Judiciary Square or the Yellow, Green and Red line stop at Gallery Place, Chinatown.
