

ARLINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY & ENCORE LEARNING

~~~~~SPECIAL EVENT~~~~~

Meet the Speaker Series

Mr. Arthur Hauptman will speak on

Why Does College Cost So Much?

What Can Be Done to Reduce the Growth in Tuition and Other Charges?

Date: Monday, July 20, 2015

Time: 3:00 pm to 4:30 pm

Place: Arlington Central Library

Popular presenter of Encore Learning classes, Arthur Hauptman, will share his expertise about higher education financing issues in the United States and in many countries around the world. In the United States, the value of a college education is at an all-time high but so is the exploding cost of college which is a question on everybody's mind from the students who worry about their future and the parents (and often the grandparents) who are faced with paying the bill

Mr. Arthur Hauptman earned a BA from Swarthmore College and an MBA from Stanford University. Since 1981 he has been an independent public policy consultant, editor and author specializing in the cost of higher education. He has lived in Arlington since 1976 and owns and operates Cassatt's Café when he is not working on education policy matters.

Registration: No registration required. This event is free and all are welcome.

Directions: The Arlington Central Library is located at 1015 N. Quincy Street between Washington Boulevard and Fairfax Drive. Parking is free at the Library or take Metro to Virginia Square on the Orange line.
