

ARLINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY & ENCORE LEARNING

~~~~~SPECIAL EVENT~~~~~

Meet the Speaker Series

Jean S. Moore will speak on

KING EDWARD I OF ENGLAND

Great Medieval King or Petty Tyrant?

Date: Monday, November 23, 2015

Time: 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Place: Arlington Central Library

Popular Encore Learning presenter of notable court cases Jean S. Moore will entertain and educate audience members with her one-woman show about King Edward the First of England. Was King Edward, as some claim, one of the great medieval kings who reestablished the Magna Carta, created Parliament and developed the rule of law in England? Or was he a petty tyrant, who controlled his barons, brutally conquered Wales and Scotland and expelled the Jews from England, all the while seeking the protection of the Pope by joining the Crusaders? Find out in our journey back to the troubled times of England, Scotland and Wales in the 13th century.

Jean S. Moore received a law degree summa cum laude from Ohio State University and joined the Honors Program of the US Department of Justice and later the White House Office of Special Counsel as staff assistant to the president. After specializing in international litigation and arbitration, she is now a retired partner of the Washington law firm of Hogan Lovells and serves on the boards of several corporations and nonprofit organizations.

Registration: No registration required. This event is free and all are welcome. Please note this is a two-hour special event, ending at 5 p.m.

Directions: The Arlington Central Library is located at 1015 N. Quincy Street between Washington Boulevard and Fairfax Drive. Parking is free at the Library or take Metro to Virginia Square on the Orange line.
