

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

President Lincoln's Cottage

See Where Abe Wrote the Emancipation Proclamation

Thursday, Sept. 30, 2016

12:45 PM to 2:00 PM

President Lincoln's Cottage, Armed Forces Retirement Home, Wash., D.C.

Registration is required; registration is guaranteed only after your check for $12.50 per person, is 1) made payable to "President Lincoln's Cottage" and 2) sent to Steve Shapiro at 5853 Doris Drive, Alexandria VA 22311 and 3) received by Sept. 9, 2016. Please write "Lincoln's Cottage Tour" in the notation area and include your email address in the envelope. Registrants will be notified once their payments are received. This event is limited to 20 registrants. A wait list will be maintained.

President Lincoln's Cottage is a nontraditional "museum of ideas" that takes a fresh look at Lincoln's life and legacy in an authentic place — his beloved home. The vibrant, conversational tour provides new perspectives on Lincoln's life, gives space for self-reflection, and connects Lincoln's work to advance freedom with contemporary challenges to human rights.

President Lincoln's Cottage is located on the grounds of the Armed Forces Retirement Home campus in NW Washington, D.C. Entrance and Parking: Enter the Eagle Gate, located at the intersection of Rock Creek Church Road and Upshur Street NW. The street address to this entrance is approximately 140 Rock Creek Church Road, N.W., Washington D.C. 20011

