

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

A Collector's Vision of D.C. Albert Small Collection...

...and D.C. watercolors by Lily Spandorf

Friday, Feb. 12, 2016

2 to 3 p.m.

The George Washington University Museum

Registration is required. The event is limited to 20 members and a donation of $8.00 to the Museum is suggested.

Join Encore Learning on a tour of the Albert Small collection of rare maps, drawings, letters, prints and photographs that trace the Nation's capital from village to the center of government and culture envisioned by George Washington. The tour will also include a brief visit to the paintings of Washington by Lily Spandorf, in an adjacent gallery.

A waiting list will be maintained and the registrants will be contacted by the coordinator approximately one week in advance regarding their status on the tour

The Museum is located on the corner of 21st and G Streets, NW, in Washington. Parking is limited; Metro is recommended: Foggy Bottom Station on the Orange and Blue Lines.
