Who Stole the Masterpieces
from the Gardner Museum?

Date: Monday, October 31, 2016

Time: 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Place: Arlington Central Library

Artist Jean S. Moore, popular Encore Learning speaker and lecturer, will tell the story (with impressive visuals) of the greatest art museum heist of all time, that of the Isabella Stewart Gardner museum in Boston. Stolen were priceless masterpieces by Vermeer, Rembrandt and others. The art was never to be seen again. How was this fascinating theft pulled off? Who likely did it, and what happened to the paintings? Although the robbery occurred in 1990, new evidence continues to surface regularly, and FBI and court files give intriguing hints as to what really happened.

Jean S. Moore received a law degree summa cum laude from Ohio State University, and joined the Honors Program of the US Department of Justice and later the White House Office of Special Counsel as Staff Assistant to the President.
