

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

Conversations

Henry Ossawa Tanner "The Thankful Poor" 1894

African and African-American Artworks in Dialogue

Friday, August 21, 2015, from 1 to 2 p.m.

The National Museum of African Art

Registration is required and is limited to 20 Encore Learning members. The tour is free.

Join Encore Learning on a tour of the African Art Museum's 20th Anniversary Exhibit, Conversations: African and African-American Artworks in Dialogue. This extensive collection of rarely-seen works, including works by Romare Bearden, Jacob Lawrence and Faith Ringgold, underscores the shared history that links Africa and the African Diaspora and seeks the common threads that have weaved their stories together over time.

A waiting list will be maintained and all registrants will be contacted by the coordinator approximately one week prior to the event regarding the status of their registration.

Directions: The African Art Museum is located at 12th Street and Independence Avenue, SW, in Washington. Travel by METRO is recommended: Smithsonian Station on the Orange and Blue Lines; L'Enfant Plaza Station on the Yellow Line.
