

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

GUSTAVE CAILLEBOTTE: THE PAINTER'S EYE

Free Lecture and Self-guided Tour

Thursday, October 1, 2015 from 1 to 2 p.m.

The National Gallery of Art, West Building Lecture Hall

Registration is required and is limited to 20 Encore Learning members. The lecture is free.

Spectacular images of Paris and visual meditations on leisure-time activities: These represent the artist at the height of his involvement with the Impressionists. The National Gallery exhibit of the works of Gustave Caillebotte features 45 of his paintings including his most famous one, PARIS STREET, RAINY DAY.

Join Encore Learning for a lecture focused on the artist and his works, preceded or followed by a self-guided tour of the exhibit.

A waiting list will be maintained and all registrants will be notified by the coordinator approximately one week in advance of the event regarding the status of their registration.

The National Gallery's West Building is located at 7th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, in Washington. Travel by METRO is recommended: Archives/Navy Memorial/Penn Quarter on the Yellow Line.
