

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

Elaine deKooning

The Portraits

Friday, November 20, 2015

1 PM to 2 PM

The National Portrait Gallery

Registration is required for 15 Encore Learning members;
the event is free.

Elaine deKooning made abstract and figurative paintings and drawings during the height of the Abstract Expressionism movement, but her gestural portraits are especially admired. She was commissioned, in particular, to paint John F. Kennedy. Join Encore Learning on this tour of an exhibit that explores her portraits, her artistic process and her position in the rise of Postmodernism.

The Portrait Gallery is located on F Street, NW, between 7th and 9th Streets, in Washington. Street parking may be available and there is commercial parking in the area. METRO: Gallery Place Station on the Yellow Line

A waiting list will be maintained and all registrants will be contacted by the coordinator approximately one week prior to the event regarding their status on the tour.
