

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

Portrait of a Fragile Dynasty

Through the Lens of John Thomson

Thursday, February 4, 2016

1 PM to 2 PM

The Textile Museum

Registration is required for 20 Encore Learning members;
an $8.00 donation per person is requested.

Travel writer John Thomson traversed vast areas of China in the late 18th century, photographing the Qing Dynasty Empire, then on the brink of drastic change. Join Encore Learning on a tour featuring a selection of Thomson's photographs, alongside of contemporaneous garments and furnishings from this fascinating and now-vanished period.

The Museum is located at 701 21st Street, NW, in Washington, on the George Washington University Campus.

Street parking may be available.

METRO: Foggy Bottom Station on the Orange and Blue Lines.
