

AN ENCORE LEARNING SPECIAL EVENT

Irving Penn, Photographer

Beyond Beauty: Fashion to Fine Art Photos

March 4, 2016

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The American Art Museum

Registration is required.

The tour is limited to 20 members and is free.

Irving Penn (1917-2009), known for his iconic fashion, portrait, and still life images, ranks among the foremost photographers of the 20th Century. Join Encore Learning on a tour of a retrospective celebrating his legacy as a modern master through photographs from all stages of his career. On display are 146 photographs from the museum's permanent collection. The exhibition presents several previously unseen or never exhibited photographs. Also on view for the first time are Super 8 mm films of Penn in Morocco, made by his wife Lisa Fonssagrives-Penn, that add a vivid picture of the artist at work.

A waiting list will be maintained and all registrants will be contacted approximately one week in advance regarding their status on the tour.

The Museum is located between 7th and 9th Streets, NW, in Washington. Street parking is limited; commercial parking is available; nearest Metro Station is Gallery Place on the Yellow Line.
